To Whom It May Concern:

Subject: Shawn Speight - Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) Program Active Membership

I have known Mr. Speight for more than six years. He was an active participant in my AA Sunday Morning 12 Step Men's Meeting from 2018 through 2022, which was held at St. James Church Parish House in Haverhill, Massachusetts, which met weekly from 6:45 AM to 8:00 AM. With the onset of Covid, the meeting was required to move to a more spacious facility at St. Luke's/Holy Angels Plaistow, New Hampshire, which Shawn continues to attend.

During the time I have known Mr. Speight, I have found him to be very serious in working his AA Program. He has often spoken of his deep love for his daughter and is known to telephone her before the early meetings to wish her a "Good Morning."

I am a licensed addiction counselor and have worked in the field for over a decade. I feel confident that Shawn's recovery is on solid ground, provided he continues to work his AA Program with the vigor he continues to demonstrate on a daily basis.

Thank you in advance for your kind consideration of this matter which, of course, will have direct impact in Mr. Speight's life. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require additional feedback.

Sincerely,

To Whom it May Concern

I am a regular participant and actively involved in the program of AA in the Haverhill MA and Plaistow NH areas .

In the period between 2018 and 2022 Michael Sean Speight was a regular attendant and participant in our weekly Sunday morning meeting in Plaistow from 7 to 8 am.

In addition to this in 2021 he completed Steel Shop Recovery Group which is a 40 week intensive study of the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous

I write this with the hope that you will understand that our program is, by design, anonymous and that you will respect that anonymity.

Hoping to have been of service,

To whom it may concern,

Sean Speight has been attending Alcoholics Anonymous twelve step meetings with me since 2018. I am his AA sponsor and we just began another intensive 30 week 12 step work shop. He is welcoming and helpful to newcomers.

Please let me know if you have questions.

Thank you.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to inform you that I have worked with Michael "Sean" Speight over several years as his counselor. I was asked to give an update on his progress in treatment. Sean has a history of anger and in addition to his substance use counseling this is something that has been addressed in sessions, since it directly has affected his substance use in the past.

I can state that Sean has progressed significantly in how he has learned to manage anger. We have worked on anger management techniques, anger warning signs and cognitive behavioral therapies assisting in reframing thinking as well as identifying cognitive distortions that have led to irrational reactions in the past.

Sean has shown improvement in how he handles situations and how he is able to take a step back and see the whole picture before responding, rather than reacting.

Given the challenge he has been facing with the current custody situation, we have focused heavily on proper responses and ways to cope and redirect his frustration and sadness. He is able to verbalize that anger is a secondary emotion that stems from primary feelings of fear and insecurity.

Sean continues to work through these feelings in therapy in order to continue learning and improving as an individual. He attends AA regularly for additional support and he has proven that his support network, which includes peers, a sponsor and his wife, has been helpful to his growth as well.

Kindly,
